

Race Time Radio Brings Canadian Short Track News and Interviews to REV TV!

Burlington, ON (February 9, 2023) — REV TV CANADA'S MOTORSPORTS & AUTOMOTIVE DESTINATION 24/7 is pleased to announce that Race Time Radio is racing on to REV TV.

Established in 2006, Race Time Radio is Canada's source for short track racing news, and features weekly guests covering series from coast-to-coast and even down south, including, but not limited to, NASCAR, the APC United Late Model Series, the East Coast International Pro Stock Tour, the WESCAR Late Model Touring Series, Avion RS1 Cup and Challenge Series, and more. Race Time Radio is hosted by Canadian motorsports stalwart Joe Chisholm, who brings a wealth of knowledge and affable personality to this salt-of-the-earth program.

"All of us here at REV TV love grassroots motorsports and we know how integral they are to motorsports as a whole," said Ed Kanerva Director of Programming and Marketing at REV TV. "Race Time Radio has its finger on the pulse of the Canadian short track scene and right across North America, providing an incredible platform for series, tracks and racers across the country, which is something we are happy to be a part of."

"We look forward to joining the REV TV family and keeping viewers up-to-date on all the short track racing across Canada each week," said Joe Chisholm, host of Race Time Radio. "We feature the country's motorsport newsmakers each week, and 2023 marks the 17th year for Race Time Radio. This year you'll see and hear from your local heroes and national stars from both sides of the border."

Race Time Radio will debut on REV TV on February 13 at 4PM ET.

About Race Time Radio

Race Time Radio presents you, the fan, with the most up-to-date racing information for the Canadian and American auto racing scene. Race Time Radio is where you can voice your opinions on the hot topics in racing. Live interviews with track promoters, drivers, series representatives, teams, and others that shape our sport on SIRIUSXM Channel 167 and now REV TV.

Host Joe Chisholm is proudly Canadian. A race fan that became involved in stock car racing originally as a car and track sponsor, he purchased Sauble Speedway in 1994, (he sold Sauble in 2007) and started the ALSTAR Late Model Touring Super Series in 1997. Chisholm took ALSTAR live on air in 1999 for the first in Canada with flag-to-flag radio broadcast coverage, and on the web. Feel free to contact Joe any time at joe@racetimeradio.com or at the RTR studio 519-371-7588.
